- Let us know about any special needs when booking a visit or guided tour.

*All requests are processed during regular business hours and are handled on a first come first served basis.

Guided Tours:
- Fees:
  - For-profit tour groups, commercial bus tours, and any group where individuals pay to participate, are charged a fee.
  - Other groups are asked to make a donation.

Tour Availability:
- Weekdays
- Guided Tours are NOT available during the following events:
  - Spring Bulb Show – Early March
  - Fall Chrysanthemum – Early November
  - Commencement through Reunion – mid May
- Tours last approximately one hour and are led by trained community volunteers, if your group arrives late, your tour may be shortened.
- Tours of the conservatories include the highlights of our plant collection or can be tailored to a group’s interest or area of study. Tours of the arboretum or outside gardens are also available.
- Groups can allow additional time to look around and take pictures on their own after their tour.

Group Size:
- Groups are limited to 40 people at any one time.
- Groups larger than 40 can split, sending half to another location, and then switching. The Smith College Art Museum offers tours for groups. Request a visit online: https://go.oncehub.com/SCMATourGroups or call (413) 585-2781 or email: museduc@smith.edu.
- Groups are divided into 10 - 12 people per guide.

Chaperones are required for groups of ten or more children:
- 1 Adult for every 10 children

Minors must be supervised at all times. Chaperones should be familiar with the Botanic Garden rules (on next page.) Their assistance in maintaining order is greatly appreciated.
Botanic Garden rules and safety: The Botanic Garden is a living museum for plants. We hope your group enjoys its visit and learns something new about the plant world. Out of respect for the collections and for the safety of your group please be familiar with and abide by the following:

We request that visitors:
- Please do not touch the plants in the conservatory or outside gardens unless your guide invites you to.
- Walk at all times in the greenhouses — floors may be wet and slippery; there may be hoses or other materials across walkways
- stay on paths/walkways in greenhouses and outside gardens
- do not climb any of the campus trees
- during guided tours, please refrain from using your electronic devices until after the tour.

People with respiratory or heart problems should be aware that some of the greenhouses are very warm and highly humid.
